TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It was my great pleasure to write this letter of recommendation to Ruth Wudu Tadese. I have known Ruth from Jul 1, 2016 to March 31, 2017 while she was working for our company as an International Correspondence and Sales Officer. She first joined the company as a trainee and as a consequence of her ability and excellent performance we decided to hire her as one of our esteemed employees.

I enjoyed my time working with Ruth. She is a very honest, transparent, dependable, meticulous, dedicated and hard-working individual. She is exceptional in dealing with multifaceted job related problems and is able to strategically address complex issues with confidence. She likes to take new challenges. Over time, I have noticed that, as much as she can do things independently, she enjoys working in a team and can foster positive discussions to bring the best out of other employees.

As our employee, her knowledge of international logistics as well as her correspondence and computer skills were too beneficial to our company. Besides, her contribution in the successful development of our company's new website was immense and remarkable.

In my opinion, Ruth can be a valuable addition to any company and, hence, it is with full confidence that I recommend her to any business related position.
